BSI 110: Essentials of Business Intelligence

This course introduces students to the value and structure of the key concepts in enterprise business intelligence. Understanding the core skills of data management, warehousing, BI requirements and data quality is the first step to making effective and efficient business decisions. The course specifically discusses the tools needed to select and evaluate data warehouse technology and platforms.

Clock Hours: 80
Discipline: Business Intelligence
Clock Hours per Week: 10
Price: $2,095.00
Military Price: $1,780.75