

VUSC 0406: Nursing and First Aid

This course is designed to provide students with information about health, healthy behaviors, and strategies to use the health care system based on body systems. During the course, students will be introduced to concepts related to body systems and how the body systems work together to maintain health and well-being and their role in health promotion.

Discipline: VUnited Scholars

Clock Hours per Week: 1

Military Price: $24,543.75