

Academic Calendars

Professional Education courses in the College of Professional Studies are offered in varying durations and modalities as noted in the table below.

For online courses, there are no scheduled holidays within the scheduled time frames. Regularly scheduled live class sessions that fall on University holidays may be rescheduled to an alternate date by the instructor. Students who are unable to attend the alternate date are not penalized.

Enrollment deadlines and start dates for courses and programs are listed on the specific course/program website.
