

Women's Leadership Development Certificate

This program advances students as leaders in personal, professional and community life. Identifies means to increase emotional intelligence, mindfulness, and growth potential development. Students will improve competencies in systems management, innovation, organizational development, communication and interprofessional relationships. This program enables the understanding of how gender and other identities impact leadership development in organizations and society.

Offered in partnership with the Anne Welsh McNulty Institute for Women's Leadership.

Discipline: Leadership

Type: Professional Certificate

Requirements

1 required course, including three residencies

Item #	Title	Clock Hours
WLDC 3000	Women's Leadership Development	42